

Join our team of court researchers and provide quality county level criminal and civil record searches in your area.

What does a researcher do?

- Researchers visit the courthouse frequently.
- They access public record information at their local courthouse.
- Upon completion of the search, they relay public record via our safe and secure site.
- They submit an invoice bi-weekly/monthly for prompt payment.

To get connected or learn more, contact Mason Perkins at mason.perkins@gaprs.com or visit <https://vendor.gaprs.biz/vendor/> and complete the “join us” tab.